

ANITA TIWARY

Born in 1959.

Anita Tiwary, a gold medalist B.F.A, completed her M.A. Art Criticism from Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda 1983 and was also awarded Research Grant from Lalit Kala Academy, New Delhi 1986-1987.

Through the eyes of soul, my creations are an endeavor to pursue an artistic expression in modern society, transcending everyday life, social reality and cultural situations. I believe, 'we don't see things the way they are, we see things the way we are.'

My Soulscapes are not a direct rendering of a place but a reaction and evocation of how I feel and relate to the surroundings.

Her recent shows include at D.D. Neroy Gallery, Mumbai in 2015, Solo show at Neilson Gallery, Spain in 2014, Participated in India Art Festival, Mumbai in 2014, 'Feminist Mappings II' – a two women exhibition at Art Heritage Gallery, India in 2013, 'A Creative Journey' Indian-Hungarian Exhibition at Tik-Tak Gallery, Pécs and Feng Shui Gallery, Fonyod, Hungary in 2012, Exhibition at Renaissance Gallerie, Bangalore, India in 2012, 'Intrigued By India, The Zephyrs Of Goa' at The International Center, Goa, India in 2012, Exhibition at Art Heritage, India in 2011. Her Paintings are in collection with art lovers in India & abroad.
