About his works:-

His works are amalgamation of bright colors used with stark contrast. His works express his free spirit which defies boundaries, forms and colors. There is a great force in his strokes and one can see boldness in application of colors.

Through his paintings, he endeavors not to attain that point of meaningfulness, but a playful or passionate mood with layers and patches of rich colors. His works extend element of ambiguity that reveals vast manifestations of thoughts, forcing the viewer to contemplate and articulate the work. The aesthetic work makes the viewers transcend to a completely new experience.
