

ROOP CHAND

About the artist:-

Roop Chand was born in 1975 in Delhi.

He was awarded a Diploma in Fine Arts by Sharda Ukil School of Art, New Delhi, in 1996, where he earned a one year Diploma in Commercial Art in 1997. He has also done an art-appreciation course at the National Gallery of Modern Art, New Delhi.

He has participated in numerous exhibitions in New Delhi, Gurgaon, Mumbai and Rajasthan.

His solo show "Feel of Music" was exhibited in 2011 at India Habitat Centre.

He was awarded "IMWA Best Artist Award" by Indian Media Welfare Association, New Delhi in 2014 and National Award in 'Drawing' by A.I.F.A.C.S. in 2007 amongst others.

His works are in the collections of Sri Lanka Embassy, Appu Ghar, National Rail Museum, Sahitya Kala Parishad, C.B.S.E., N.D.M.C., Shankar's Academy of Art and many more.

About his works:-

Roop Chand's art depicts the lyrics and rhythms of music through figures and expressions. He visually and splendidly renders the feel of music through his artworks. The blend of colors and forms are skillfully incorporated into his works. The magnificent synthesis of textures and colors can be flawlessly witnessed in his artworks. Through his paintings he makes viewers see various moods and personalities of people.