

YAJANIKA

She is an artist by default. She is a Broadcast Media Professional. She has a strong passion and love for sketching. Sketching is a kind of meditation for her. In her sketches the artist don't depict the monument as a whole but whatever niches, corner, pillars and arches she found most interesting. The artist adores the history but especially the history of Delhi which is so fascinating.

She studied Applied Arts from Faculty of Visual Arts, BHU and went on to specialize in Desktop Motion Graphics. She has worked in a TV production house for several years and thereafter set up her own production studio – Design Access. She has worked mainly for IMG-TWI, National Geographic Channel, ESPN, Star Sports, Ten Sports, DD Sports and ZEE Sports.

According to artist, "All the works on display were done while recuperating from a long & traumatic illness which lasted for almost three years...I came out of my shock and depression through expressing myself through these ruins...It was therapeutic and brought me back from the place of darkness!"
